

VENDOR AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

Another Tasty Event (ATE) pride themselves on their friendly, professional approach to all events and vendors.

This general standard of courtesy and behaviour is expected from our vendors, both to event staff and the public.

- Rude, argumentative, disrespectful or offensive language or behaviour and non-compliance with our rules and regulations will not be tolerated.
- It is each individual stall holders responsibility to maintain a tidy site (to the satisfaction of event staff).
- Rubbish & waste generated from your individual site is your responsibility to remove from the event site.
- DO NOT place your rubbish in the bins provided by the event for the public.

Failure to meet these standards may result in you being asked to immediately pack up and leave the event.

Failure to meet these standards may also result in you not being considered to attend any future events.

SITE FEE PAYMENT POLICY

All site fee's are due and payable, once your application has been approved and within 7 days from issue date of invoice.

Failure to pay invoice within the 7 day period, may result in your approval being withdrawn and your allocated site, being made available to another applicant.

SITE CANCELLATION POLICY

Notification of valid reason for non-attendance of any event is required by email and acceptance of such reason will be at complete and total discretion of ATE.

14 days or more prior to event:

Cancellation Fee of 50% of site fee paid will apply.

Less than 14 days prior to event:

Cancellation Fee of 100% of site fee. Nil refund.

Please consider your calendars and commitments carefully prior to applying for a site at any ATE event.

POWER

ATE does NOT provide power at events for stall holders. The majority of ATE events are in the evening, so please ensure you have enough lighting for your stall. You will require a quiet generator and sufficient fuel. If you run out, we do not refill! Normal safety standards apply, requiring you to secure and cover all power leads to avoid trip hazards.

BUMP IN INFORMATION

ATE will email bump in details to you one week prior to the event. Please ensure you read this!

REGISTRATION DOCUMENTATION

Your food handling certificate and council notification will need to be on display on your site for Council inspection. Failure to comply may result in you being fined by Council, and/or immediately closed down.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Unless torrential rain is forecast for the day of the event, ATE events go ahead rain, hail or shine!

High winds will be assessed on the day of the event. You will be notified by email and social media if an event is cancelled outside of ATE's control.

UPCOMING EVENTS

ATE post all events on their Facebook page, so please ensure you 'LIKE' their pages to stay up to date. Once you have attended ATE events, you will also be notified by email. ATE do not 'reserve' stalls on the presumption that you will attend. It is your responsibility to get your applications in early to avoid disappointment.

SITE POSITION

Every site position at ATE events is a "good position". Site layout and stall positions are assessed by ATE for each individual event and positions are allocated considering many different factors, to perfectly balance our event layout.

PARTNERSHIP/ SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Upon receipt of your application, you will have the opportunity to be involved in our Event Partner Program. Full details and cost of our partner program will be provided on each event. The Partnership Program may entitle the vendor to preferred site placement, promotional opportunities via online marketing, website, social media, email newsletters and advertising in ATE's eMagazine "eat".
